Hello students,

The Faculty Student Council hopes you are all doing fine and your family and friends are healthy as well. We also hope that you're coping with the new standards in the Netherlands, especially with regard to continuing to study. I can tell from my own experience that it is not the easiest thing to do. I never thought that I'd miss the University Library and all the other study spaces on Science Park.

This crisis reminds us how important it is to have a safe working environment. Despite the fact that a lot of things feel relatively unimportant right now, it is still good to dwell on our rights as students. By that I mean that the Faculty Student Council should have successors next year.

Even though it is not yet entirely clear how the rest of this year will continue (apart from there not being any on-campus teaching until at least 1 June), we do know for sure that we will need new representatives in the Faculty Student Council for next year. During our recruitment day we were already able to recruit some candidates, but the subsequent information evening unfortunately had to be cancelled. Luckily, the elections have been postponed to the week of 8-12 June, giving us more time to recruit and you more time to sign-up as a candidate. Apply with one of the two parties LIEF and SLAAFS, or send an email to fnwi@studentenraad.nl if you have any questions!

Again, I wish you a lot of strength and success the coming months and please contact us if you have any questions about block 4, 5 or 6.

Kind regards,

Ilya Janssen
General Council Member
The Faculty Student Council FNWI 19/20

Elections for Student Councils to be held in June

Due to the current circumstances the UvA- and Faculty Student Council elections have been postponed to the week of 8-12 June. Aspiring candidates can submit themselves for election between 28 April and 7 May. Since the Faculty Student Council consults with and advises the dean on important issues (such as binding study advice, education quality and facilities for students) you can actively help to create a better

Faculty by joining the Faculty Student Council!

Besides gaining very interesting work experience, you'll acquire a great network, both of which could be beneficial to your future career.

You even receive a grant!

CORONA UPDATES!

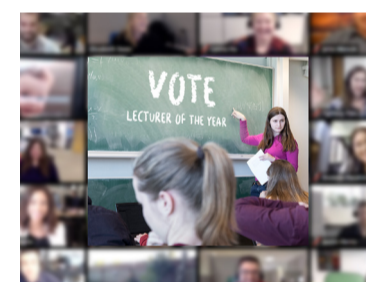

On uva.nl/corona UvA students are kept up to date on the implications around the coronavirus. Additional information for Faculty of Science students can be found on the website of your programme, through student.uva.nl.

Want to have a say in your education?

The Programme Committee of your programme guards the quality of education. The committee, consisting of both students and teachers, assesses the Teaching and Examination Regulations and its implementation, and issues advice to the educational director on all educational aspects of your degree programme. That means they also represent you. If you have a complaint or suggestion about a specific course, or about your programme in general, please do not hesitate to get in touch. Check student.uva.nl > your programme > A-Z > Programme Committee.

Vote for your Lecturer of the Year

Good lecturers are key to good teaching. Even during the Corona crisis, our lecturers continue to provide good education. That's why the UvA community wants to honor the lecturer. Which lecturer inspires you? Who do you value for good quality of education? Let us know! You can vote online until 24 April.
