GENERAL SECTION

Article 7.51 of the Dutch Higher Education and Research Act (Wet op het hoger onderwijs en wetenschappelijk onderzoek, WHW) contains rules governing financial assistance for students whose studies are delayed by a circumstance referred to in said article. The Executive Board adopted the arrangement below for the allocation of the financial provision on the grounds of this statutory arrangement, with the consent of the student participation body, on 7 July 2021.

Please note that supplementary conditions apply to each individual component of the regulations. Therefore, be sure to check the conditions outlined in the relevant section.

Article 1 Definitions

1 In these regulations, the following words shall have the following meanings assigned to them:
   a. DUO: Dienst Uitvoering Onderwijs (the Education Executive Agency), which is responsible for student finance, among other things;
   b. Nominal duration of a study programme: the expected amount of time needed to complete a degree programme according to the CROHO or according to the Implementation Decree of the Higher Education and Research Act;
   c. Performance-related grant: article 5.1 of the Student Finance Act 2000 (WSF 2000): student travel product, supplemented by a supplementary grant and a single-parent family allowance if necessary. Performance-related grants are issued by DUO for the nominal duration of both a Bachelor’s degree and a Master’s degree. Student travel products are issued for the nominal duration of both a Bachelor’s degree and a Master’s degree, plus one additional year in the case of the students delay to the completion of studies;
   d. CROHO: Central Register of Higher Education Programmes;
   e. Assistance: payment from the Profiling Fund of the University of Amsterdam;
   h. Committee of Student Counsellors: the committee that assesses students’ financial assistance applications to the Profiling Fund and advises the Executive Board on the matter.
   i. Student Organisation Recognition Committee: this committee establishes once every three years which student organisations/parties will be eligible for financial support pursuant to these regulations.

2 Other terms used in these regulations shall have the meanings assigned to them in the law, if they are used in any acts.

Article 2 Conditions applicable to all components of these regulations

1 Financial assistance will be issued to a student:
   a. whose studies, as a result of circumstances described in these regulations, are delayed during an academic year in which the student is registered as a full-time or work-study student on a degree programme for which the student has not yet taken the final examination;
b. who, in connection with taking the degree programme as referred to - under a, at least is or has been eligible for the performance-related grant for higher education as referred to in the WSF 2000 and, if applicable, a supplementary grant,
c. is enrolled at the UvA for the nominal duration of the degree programme during the period in which they receive the performance-related grant and
d. has paid the UvA the requisite statutory tuition fees.

2 If the documents submitted in support of the application are drawn up in a foreign language (i.e. neither Dutch nor English), the student must include a certified translation into Dutch or English.

3 Students who are not eligible for financial assistance under the WSF 2000 purely on account of their nationality may invoke these regulations (except for the provisions of Section 2, Article 2), as long as they are studying within the nominal duration of the relevant degree programme. Students must comply with the requirements of these regulations, with the exception of the provisions specified in the first paragraph under b and d.

Article 3 Convergence of circumstances
In the event that a convergence of circumstances exists in the sections of these regulations, within the same period, which each separately provide cause for the allocation of financial assistance, a determination will be made as to which cause has resulted in the greatest study completion delay. Financial assistance will be issued solely on that ground.

Article 4 Period covered by the grant

1 The duration of the assistance on the grounds of Section 1 for the entire period that the student is registered at the UvA cannot, taken together, exceed half of the nominal study duration per academic year (six months), and in total cannot exceed half of the nominal study duration of the degree programme.

2 If an applicant holds an office as referred to in Section 3 or 4 for only part of an academic year, the allocation will be reduced proportionately.

3 Students who, at their own request, have been assigned to participate in the Flexible learning pilot will see the amount of the financial assistance they receive under Sections 1 and 2 calculated pro rata, based on the number of credits for which they have paid tuition fees.

Article 5 Incomplete applications
If the application is incomplete, the applicant will be given a reasonable amount of time to complete the application. If the application is not completed within this period, it will be rejected. The applicant will be notified to this effect. As long as the period for submitting an application has not elapsed, the student may submit a new application.

Article 6 Hardship clause
In circumstances other than those specified in these regulations, the Executive Board may arrange facilities in order to prevent significant unfairness.

Article 7 Effective date, official title
These regulations will come into effect on 1 September 2021, and they may be cited as ‘Profiling Fund Regulations 2021’.
SECTION 1  Financial assistance on the grounds of force majeure

Article 1  Conditions for assistance on the grounds of force majeure

Students may submit an application for financial assistance if they have delay in their studies due to one of the following exceptional circumstances:

a. illness or pregnancy and childbirth;
b. a disability or chronic illness;
c. special family circumstances.

Article 2  Reporting and limiting of study completion delay

1. In the event of a delay to the completion of studies due to force majeure, the student or their authorised representative must report to the academic study adviser of the degree programme in which they are enrolled (and in which the study completion is delayed) or to the student counsellor at once, or in any event within three months, in order to agree on measures to be taken to limit the study completion delay as much as possible.

2. Students will not be eligible for support if they only report the exceptional circumstance or report it to a student psychologist or another member of staff.

3. If the student reports at a later date, they will not be eligible for assistance for study completion delay that occurred earlier than three months before the report of the exceptional circumstance took place.

Article 3  Determining the study completion delay

1. The level of financial assistance is based on the total duration of the actual study completion delay, as a result of the exceptional circumstances referred to in Article 1, based on the nominal duration of the degree programme, or based on the number of credits for which they have applied and for which they are registered if the student is engaged in a flexible learning programme.

2. Account is taken in this respect of the academic and examination programme of the degree programme(s) concerned.

3. The duration of the study completion delay will be determined for each academic year. No later than 31 December following the end of the academic year in which the student incurred a study completion delay due to exceptional circumstances, a calculation will be made of the number of months of study completion delay resulting from the exceptional circumstances, based on the official number of nominal credits to be obtained and the actual number of credits obtained.

4. Applications received after the date referred to in the third paragraph will not be processed unless the applicant can demonstrate that they were unable to submit an application due to force majeure.

5. The delay incurred as a result of exceptional circumstances cannot exceed the number of credits that could be achieved in the context of the nominal duration of the degree programme(s) in the academic year in question, in accordance with the academic and examination programme (set down in the Teaching and Examination Regulations), or the number of credits for which they have applied and for which they are registered if the student is engaged in a flexible learning programme.

6. If the applicant has obtained 60 or more credits in the academic year or, if the student is engaged in a flexible learning programme, if the applicant has obtained the number of credits for which they have applied and for which they are registered (with credits obtained at other institutions or in other degree programmes being included in the count), the student shall be deemed not to have incurred a study completion delay.

7. If a student is 5 credits short, they are deemed to have incurred a study completion delay of one month. A study completion delay lasting less than one month or of less than five credits will not result in allocation of financial assistance.

Article 4 Study completion delay due to pregnancy and childbirth

1. If the pregnancy extends across two academic years, the level of financial assistance allocated to the student will be determined by the student’s situation in the second of these two academic years.

2. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 3 of this section, the amount awarded to a student to offset her study completion delay due to pregnancy and childbirth shall not exceed the equivalent of four months' grant amounts.

Article 5 Deferred annual registration to allow the student to choose either DUO or the Profiling Fund

1. In the event that a student has incurred a study completion delay due to circumstances within the meaning of Article 1 of this section, the student may in certain cases apply to DUO for an extension of the performance-related grant, following a consultation with their student counsellor.

2. If a student who has incurred a study completion delay has their performance-related grant extended by DUO, said student becomes ineligible for financial support from the Profiling Fund during that same period.

3. If the exceptional circumstances persist and it is uncertain how long they will last, the student may agree, in consultation with the student counsellors, to keep an annual record of the extent of their study completion delay until the end of the period covered by the performance-related grant and for as long as the student continues to be enrolled at the UvA.

4. As part of the annual procedure of recording the study completion delay, the student counsellor, after receiving the Reporting Study Completion Delay Form filled in by the student, will record the study completion delay. No application for financial assistance is submitted at this stage. This information will be recorded between September and December each year, immediately after the end of the academic year in which the special circumstances that caused the study completion delay occurred and were reported to the academic study adviser.

5. Once the period covered by the performance-related grant or the nominal duration of the degree programme is over, or when the student requests it, the annual registration of the study completion delay will end and the student counsellor will record the total study completion delay.

6. It is then up to the student to choose the grant application method that will be most favourable to them, either an extension of the performance-related grant by DUO or an allowance allocated by the Profiling Fund.

7. If DUO grants an extension of the performance-related grant, the student will receive a grant for another 12 months. If a student is granted an extension of the performance-related grant in one academic year and incurs another study completion delay due to exceptional circumstances in subsequent academic years, the student will not be eligible for financial support from the Profiling Fund again until their study completion delay is greater than the 12 months covered by the initial extension of the performance-related grant.

Article 6 Application for financial assistance

1. Students must submit a request to determine the period of delay and the application for financial assistance simultaneously after the end of the academic year in question, but before 31 December, using the appropriate form.

2. The following documents must be enclosed with the application form as a minimum:
   a. a statement from the academic study adviser or student counsellor on when the study completion delay was reported, what agreements have been made with the student and how many credits the student is short;
   b. an overview of the study results achieved up to that point;
   c. a statement from the DUO showing that the student is or was eligible for the performance-related grant for higher education as referred to in the WSF 2000 and, if applicable, a supplementary grant, in the academic year in which the exceptional circumstances have occurred;
   d. if the application is based on a medical condition: a document proving that the student was affected by this medical condition and showing when the condition arose, or;
   e. if the application is based on exceptional family circumstances: a document proving these exceptional family circumstances.

Article 7 Processing and decision

1. The Student Services director will reach a decision, on behalf of the Executive Board, within eight weeks of receipt of the request for financial assistance.

2. The student counsellor will notify the Student Counsellors’ Committee of the extent of the study completion delay. The level of assistance is related to the study completion delay actually incurred as a result of the exceptional circumstances.

3. The applicant will be notified of the decision in writing. The notice of the decision will also indicate that an objection may be lodged with the Executive Board within six weeks.

4. The decision will state one of the following:
   • either that the student will be granted financial assistance;
   • or that the application has been rejected.
SECTION 2  Assistance in specific situations

This section of the regulations applies to:

1. students taking an insufficiently feasible degree programme;
2. students taking a CROHO-registered Master's programme that is not fully financed by the government;
3. students who, in addition to their studies, are participating in high-level competitive sports or who have been identified as having high-level cultural talent.

Article 1  An ‘insufficiently feasible’ degree programme

1. Students who have incurred a study completion delay as a result of the way in which the institution actually provides the degree programme (‘insufficiently feasible degree programme’) may submit a request for financial assistance.
2. A student who wishes to be eligible for assistance on these grounds must contact the faculty dean, through an academic study adviser. The dean will issue the student with a statement, which in any event will state the number of months of the student’s study completion delay.
3. The student will submit a request for financial assistance to the Executive Board, for the attention of the director of Student Services, in accordance with the applicable guidelines.

Article 2  Master’s programme exceeding 60 EC

1. Students who are taking a CROHO-registered Master’s programme whose course load has been found by the institution to exceed 60 EC within the meaning of Article 7.4a(8) of the WHW may submit a request for financial assistance.
2. To be eligible for financial assistance, the student must be or must have been eligible for the performance-related grant for higher education students within the meaning of the WSF 2000 and, where applicable, a supplementary grant, and the student must be enrolled at the UvA and have paid the UvA’s statutory tuition fees.
3. The student must submit a request for financial assistance to the Executive Board, to the attention of the director of Student Services, in accordance with the applicable guidelines and append documentary evidence issued by DUO, showing the amount of the most recent performance-related grant payment received from DUO.

Article 3  Transitional arrangement for students taking a dual Master’s programme

Students who are taking a CROHO-registered Master’s programme whose course load has been found by the institution to exceed 60 EC within the meaning of Article 7.4a(8) of the WHW continue to be subject to the Profiling Fund Regulations 2017-2018, provided that they were eligible for financial support pursuant to Article 2 of Section 2 of the Profiling Fund Regulations 2017-2018 at the start of their degree programme (before September 2022).
High-level competitive athletes and students with high-level cultural talent

Article 4 Terms and conditions for determination of study completion delay

1. Students who have been designated high-level competitive athletes by the UvA’s Top Level Sports Coordinator or who have been designated as having high-level cultural talent by the Student Counsellors’ Committee and who have incurred a study completion delay as a result of activities that are directly related to their performance in question may submit a request for financial assistance. They may receive a grant for up to 12 months.
2. The designation as to whether someone has high-level cultural talent is subject to the rules set out in the relevant regulations.
3. Students as referred to in paragraph 1 must report to a student counsellor or academic study adviser as soon as possible, but in any event within three months of the occurrence of the study completion delay. If a student reports at a later date, they will not be eligible for assistance for study completion delay that occurred earlier than three months before the report of the exceptional circumstance took place. Reporting to another employee of the university will not result in eligibility.
4. Applicants who have obtained 60 or more credits in a given academic year or, if they are engaged in a flexible learning programme, who have obtained the number of credits for which they have applied and for which they are registered (with credits obtained at other institutions or for other degree programmes being included in the count) shall be deemed not to have incurred as study completion delay and shall therefore not be eligible for financial assistance from the Profiling Fund.

Appendix II  Collective Requirements

Classification of student organisations
For the recognition of student organisations whose board members could be eligible for financial assistance and the distribution of the budgets, a choice has been made to divide student organisations into clusters.

Cluster A: Student associations promoting the academic student culture in Amsterdam.

Social associations

1. Social associations organise activities in the area of:
   - academic development and the exchange of knowledge in the form of lectures, debates and conferences;
   - culture (e.g. theatre and music);
   - sports (e.g. sports days and competitions);
   - study support (e.g. study groups and mentors);
   - activities promoting the student association culture in Amsterdam.

2. Social associations may run association buildings (i.e. accommodations/clubhouse) under their own management that provide central meeting places for their members.

Sports associations

1. Sports associations are organisations that organise activities focusing on the exercise of one or more sports. They:
   - facilitate the active exercise of sports by students within the context of clubs (e.g. by providing sports equipment);
   - organise matches and/or training sessions in a club context;
   - have an active policy with regard to the training and activities of their members within the context of sports (trainers, instructors and/or referees).

2. Sports associations are assessed in part according to the following supplementary criteria:
   - The organisation has its own club building (i.e. accommodations/clubhouse) under its own management that provides a central meeting place for its members.
   - The organisation has teams and/or individual members who have achieved a recognised high level of competitive sports (according to NOC*NSF criteria).

Cultural associations

Cultural associations are organisations that organise activities focused on cultural expression. They produce and present performances and music or dance recitals, organise exhibitions and presentations, produce theatrical and stage performances or facilitate other forms of cultural expression in a club context.
Cluster B: Organisations/Foundations

1. International organisations
   a. focus on the international orientation of UvA students and the realisation of a programme of activities intended for this purpose; and/or
   b. focus on international students of the UvA and the realisation of a programme of activities intended for this purpose, with the goal of helping these students feel at home in the Netherlands, and particularly in Amsterdam.

2. Multicultural organisations
   a. focus on involving UvA students of non-Dutch or bi-cultural backgrounds in the student life of Amsterdam and the realisation of a programme of activities intended for this purpose; and
   b. take the integration of students of non-Dutch or bi-cultural backgrounds into Dutch society as a starting point.

3. Labour market and entrepreneurship organisations
   a. organise activities that prepare UvA students for the labour market (e.g. by organising internship opportunities in the Netherlands or abroad or project and consulting work); and/or
   b. organise activities for UvA students supplementary to the UvA Career Day and the activities of UvA Career Services; and/or
   c. introduce students to facets of entrepreneurship (e.g. by having students work in companies or assisting students in establishing their own companies);
   d. provide work placement opportunities.

4. Ideological organisations ensure the ideological debate amongst UvA students by organising such activities as lectures, debates, discussion groups and conferences.

5. General student interest organisations represent the interests of students in particular student environments.

6. Cultural organisations
   a. organise activities focusing on the realisation of cultural expression;
   b. produce and present performing arts, organise exhibitions and presentations or realise other forms of cultural expression in a club context.

Cluster C: Study associations/other organisations

1. Study associations
   In order to be eligible for Administrative Body Membership Grants, study associations must contribute to an active study environment through the following and other activities, in addition to the conditions specified in Articles 3 and 4:
   a. organising symposiums, conferences and study trips;
   b. organising book sales to members;
   c. cooperating in teaching evaluations, providing input concerning education policy and/or organising academic student counselling;
   d. cooperating in the faculty introduction, labour-market orientation activities and other faculty activities.

2. Student parties are those that have been recognised on the grounds of Article 5 in Section 4 of these regulations.
Appendix III Calculation model for associations

Calculation of the maximum number of grant months for associations

Student Organisation Recognition Committee

This committee is charged with the triennial recognition process and the allocation of the points to each association, based on the completed Collective Requirements Assessment Form. The allocation of points, which form part of the determination of the amount of the Administrative Body Membership Grant for each association, is performed qualitatively based on the Collective Requirements Assessment Form.

The formula

The number of members in the association is also important, in addition to the assessment of the Collective Requirements Assessment Form. The number of members constitutes the quantitative part of the maximum grant. In the formula below, this is designated the constant receivable (CR). The qualitative part – the number of points that can be allocated on the basis of the questionnaire – constitutes the factor referred to as the additional receivable (AR).

Profiling formula:

\[ \text{Aantal leden}^{0.56} \times \text{grant months for each association (GMa)} \]

Weighting factor (0.7) x GMa = Constant Receivable (CR)

Weighting factor (0.6) \(^1\) x GMa = Additional Receivable (AR)

CR + AR = ultimate number of grant months

An association can receive a maximum of 130% and a minimum of 70%. The AR factor consists of 60% – up to 60 points to be earned (sum of 60%) in the evaluation of the Collective Requirements Assessment Form.

The amount of the grant will be rounded up to whole months.

For example:

Association Y has 100 members.

\[ 100^{0.56} \approx 13 = \text{GMa} \]

\[ 0.7 \times 13 \approx 9 = \text{CR} \]

If an association were to earn 15 points with the collective Requirements Assessment Form, the weighting factor for the AR would be: \( \frac{15}{60} \times 0.6 = 0.15 \).

\(^1\) The weighting factor used depends on the number of points earned on the Collective Requirements Assessment Form. An association that has earned 60 points will receive a weighting factor of 0.6.
The ultimate number of grant months could thus be divided amongst the board members of Association Y:

\[9 + 2 = 11\]

Appendix IV  Categorical classification of other organisations

Other student organisations without members are classified into the following categories, based on the evaluation of the Collective Requirements Form and the documents submitted by the organisation:

- Small organisations (up to 20 points) maximum of 12 months
- Medium-sized organisations (25 to 40 points) maximum of 36 months
- Large organisations (more than 45 points) maximum of 42 months
